Unlocking the Endowment of the MGGP Region

Regional focus

- Systematic exploration of the targeting meaningful additional ore sources to the Mt Gibson operation
- Region is well defined structurally with gold occurrences in well known contacts
- Southern Yalgoo-Singleton Greenstone, hosting MGGP has had minimal modern geophysical surveys prior to CMM

Mummaloo acquisition

- Multiple targets highly prospective targets analogous and proximal to MGGP on 219km² of contiguous tenure
- Highest priority target <6km from existing MGGP resource
- Exploration and overflow capacity of a modern camp

Strong Resource Conversion to ORE & Potential for More

Mount Gibson Gold Project Resource / Reserve Updates⁽¹⁾

Compelling Resource & Reserve Growth

- Targeting data gaps between resource shells, parallel trends, at depth & along strike
- High value drilling - reserves added to date at $30/oz & 7.9oz/meter
- Average pit depth still only 180m
- ORE/Indicated MRE conversion consistent, simply drilling density constrained

Drilling Metres

FY22	FY23	FY24	FY25
80,124m	112,116m	113,074m	~102,000m

Drilling continues to deliver high quality ounces

(2) Conversion ratio is calculated by dividing the proved and probable ore reserves ORE by the indicated mineral resource estimate MRE.

Mt Gibson – Delivering a giant, that’s still growing

What's the prize for developing MGGP⁽¹⁾?

What is the prize for developing MGGP?

2.59Moz ORE & forecast to be a >150kozpa lowest quartile AISC producer

The medium-term value creation opportunity of MGGP for CMM is compelling

CMM driving to permit & develop MGGP as rapidly and efficiently as possible. Permitting pathways take time, but the rewards will be worth it.

- The scarcity of large, quality Australian gold development assets is VERY real
- Scale & quality of MGGP stands out in the mid-tier sector
- Peer comparisons highlight the project’s significance at both project and “whole company” levels

“The stock market is a device for transferring money from the impatient to the patient.” – Warren Buffet
